Sugarbush Lodge...for family reunions, retreats, and just for fun!

Alexandria offers activities for everyone. Stay active with golfing, fishing, boating, & biking, or enjoy being creative with antique and boutique shopping, fine dining, the winery and distillery, live theater, museums and galleries. The kids enjoy the amusement park and keeping busy at the beach. End each day with an amazing sunset and a relaxing campfire.

Though Sugarbush Lodge is new, it shares a legacy with one the lakes area's finest grand hotels. The estate was the location of one the first luxury tourist hotels north of the Twin Cities. The Alexandria Hotel was established in 1883 and its innkeepers provided the best accommodations and amenities. The same holds true today. Sugarbush Lodge is warm and inviting, and it's not uncommon for your guests to comment, "This is really nice, I could live here!"

The main floor provides a panoramic view of Lake Geneva. A gourmet kitchen opens onto a large deck with a Weber grill. There are four bedrooms, two baths, and the Great Room with a handcrafted fireplace.
