If your vehicle is in the lot, and the tow truck has been called, you will be charged a minimum fee, up to $50.00, even if you move your vehicle before the tow truck arrives. The following are reasons for towing at owner's expense:

Minnesota law provides that a seizure of anything from your dwelling unit that is illegal to possess under Minnesota Law, or of any illegal drugs, may cause you to be evicted. The Landlord may bring an Unlawful Detainer Action against you. The County Attorney will notify the Landlord of the seizure and an Unlawful Detainer Action will be taken within 15 days of notice from the County Attorney.

The Tenant hereby expressly waives any and all claims against the Landlord, for or on account of any personal injuries sustained; loss or damage to property caused by fire, water, or overflow, however arising or caused or being within said unit; for loss of any articles by theft or from any cause from said unit or property; or for damage caused by loss of heat, water, or use of any facilities of the unit if said loss is

The Tenant agrees to permit the Landlord or any employees of the Landlord, to enter the unit at any reasonable time to inspect it, to show it to others wishing to lease, to make any improvements thereon, for necessary maintenance, to conduct heat/water checks, or to clean; and at the expiration of the agreement, to quietly yield and surrender possession.

Failure to comply with this agreement will subject the Tenant to an immediate eviction and/or Tenant will be held responsible for any undo cost to the Landlord. Eviction due to non-payment or violation of agreement does not release Tenant from his/her obligation of this agreement in its entirety.

We understand this is an agreement for the entire period stated above, and we are responsible for rents for the entire agreement. If the Tenant leaves early and vacates the unit for any reason, we also understand the damage/security deposit and cleaning fee will be forfeited and we are to pay rent for the entire time of the agreement. If landlord finds a new ATCC student to lease your cabin or room, you will not have to pay rent for the months that it is leased to a different student. In the event we are able to lease your cabin, we will refund your last month's rent portion of the deposit.

We, as Tenant and Co-signer, have read, and understand completely the agreement herein, and both agree to be responsible for the terms.
